

the block of unsolicited calls have been good for our household because there are no more calls at dinner time, and then you spend 5 min. trying to get off the phone with the callers.